

Tech Seven Trading and Maintenance W.L.L Privacy Policy

General Provisions

Tech Seven values your privacy and is dedicated to developing technology that provides you with a secure and powerful online experience. This Privacy Statement applies to the Tech Seven website and governs the collection and usage of data. By using the Tech Seven website, you consent to the practices described in this statement regarding data collection and usage. We are committed to safeguarding your personal information and maintaining its confidentiality. Please review this statement to understand how we collect, use, and protect your

Collection of your Personal Information

We may utilize the personal information you provide to us for the purpose of evaluating and enhancing our website and the services we provide. Additionally, we may contact you through postal mail, email, and/or telephone to share information about our services, promotions, and Tech Seven-related news that may be of interest to you. If you prefer not to receive such information or would like to request a copy of the personal information we have on file for you, please reach out to us by writing an email to sales@techseven.com. Please note that Tech Seven may charge a fee, as permitted by law, for providing you with access to your personal information.

Use of your Personal Information

Tech Seven is dedicated to the responsible collection and utilization of your personal information. We gather and utilize your personally identifiable information to operate the Tech Seven website and provide the services you have requested. Additionally, we may use your personal information to notify you about other products or services offered by Tech Seven and its affiliates. On occasion, we may reach out to you through surveys to gather feedback and conduct research on your views regarding current services or potential new services.

It is important to note that Tech Seven does not sell, rent, or lease customer lists to third parties. However, there may be instances where we contact you on behalf of external business partners to inform you about a specific offering that may be of interest to you. In such cases, your unique personally identifiable information, including your email, name, address, and telephone number, will not be shared with the third party.

Tech Seven respects your privacy and does not use or disclose sensitive personal information, such as race, religion, or political affiliations, without obtaining your explicit consent.

In order to enhance our services, Tech Seven may track the websites and pages visited by our customers within our platform. This data is used to analyse user behaviour and preferences, allowing us to provide customized content and targeted advertising to customers who have shown interest in specific subject areas.

Please be aware that Tech Seven will only disclose your personal information if required to do so by law or in good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) comply with legal obligations or legal process served on Tech Seven or our website; (b) protect and defend the rights or property of Tech Seven; or (c) act in urgent circumstances to safeguard the personal safety of Tech Seven users or the general public.

Rest assured that Tech Seven is committed to maintaining the security and confidentiality of your personal information in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

Cookies and other web technologies

Cookies play a crucial role in enhancing user experience on websites. They are small pieces of information that a website can transfer to a user's computer hard drive to track site usage, personalize website information, and improve overall user experience. At Tech Seven, we may use cookies to collect and store personal information, linking it to the information you provide us. It's important to note that we do not automatically log or collect data, except for the information you explicitly provide and for the purposes of using cookies.

By default, most internet browsers are set to accept cookies. However, if you prefer not to receive cookies, you have the option to configure your internet browser to notify you when cookies are being used or to refuse cookies altogether. It's worth mentioning that by refusing cookies, certain parts of our website may not be accessible, and you may be deprived of the full functionality provided.

We are committed to respecting your preferences regarding cookies and ensuring that your personal information is handled securely and in accordance with applicable laws and regulation

Electronic Forms

When you provide information on our website for inquiry purposes, we collect certain details about you, including your name, email address, interests, and personality needs. This information is essential for accurately identifying the user and enabling us to respond to your requests. Mandatory fields are indicated by an asterisk (*) and are required to proceed with your inquiry. If you submit a form without completing the mandatory data, we will notify you promptly.

Our website may also collect additional information, such as your age and gender, to assist us in creating user profiles and gaining insights into user interests. Providing this type of information is optional, and you can choose to fill it out at your discretion.

In general, you may be asked to provide personally identifiable information when sending us comments or suggestions, registering for Tech Seven services on the website, subscribing to newsletters, requesting sales information and advertisements, or making inquiries to Tech Seven.

Rest assured that we handle your personally identifiable information with utmost care, and we adhere to applicable laws and regulations regarding data privacy and protection.

How can I control my personal information?

Registration on the Tech Seven W.L.L website is not required to access its features. We are committed to providing you with options to manage your information. This includes the ability to unsubscribe, verify, or correct any information you have provided online to Tech Seven, its affiliates, or partners.

The information you submit online is used to improve our services and cater to your specific needs. For instance, we analyse usage patterns to identify popular sections of our website and make enhancements accordingly. The data we collect is analysed by Tech Seven, ensuring that identifiable characteristics and usernames remain anonymous.

When you send us comments or suggestions, create a link to the Tech Seven website, or register for Tech Seven services, we will only record your email address if you provide it to us through a message or disclosure.

Changes to this Statement

Tech Seven acknowledges the importance of regularly reviewing and updating our Statement of Privacy to align with company practices and customer feedback.

We encourage you to periodically review this Statement to stay informed about how Tech Seven is safeguarding your information. By keeping up to date with our privacy practices, you can maintain awareness of any changes that may affect you.

Contact Information

Tech Seven welcomes your comments regarding this Statement of Privacy. If you believe that Tech Seven has not adhered to this Statement, please contact Tech Seven at sales@techseven.com. We will use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly determine and remedy the problem.
